

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 8.

Now, by St. Paul, the work goes bravely on, The Stars and Stripes are up for Liberty, Flag of the Nation—Tallman of the Free, Ours'd be the hand that dares to pull these down

GLORIOUS NEWS.—Again the wires have flashed to us the cheering news of another brilliant victory. Richmond, that has been for four years the hot-bed of secession, the grand center, from whence radiated all the bitter animosities toward a Government that has always nurtured and protected its citizens, has at last fallen to the prowess of the gallant soldiers of the Union. This event sends a thrill of joy to the heart of every true man in the country; not because those of our fellow-citizens who have arrayed themselves as our enemies have been slaughtered, but that the cause which they sustained is practically dead. By the capture of the capital of the Southern Confederacy the cause of the rebels goes by the board. With Sherman, Hancock, Sheridan and Grant on all sides, with immense armies, escape is entirely out of the reach of those who by their position and influence inaugurated this most foul and uncalled for rebellion by which thousands of hearths have been desolated, and the tears and heart-rending cries of widows and orphans continually ascend to the throne of the Eternal Ruler for vengeance. God has vouchsafed to the Union arms the victory, and we should not be backward in availing ourselves of its fruits. With the capture of Richmond the Union forces take "thousands of prisoners, and hundreds of guns." Petersburg, twenty-two miles south of Richmond, was evacuated on Sunday, April 1st, and our troops marched into the rebel capital on the same day at noon. "Glory to God in the highest."

"BLOOD, IAGO, BLOOD!"—The last number of the Stars and Stripes impresses us with the idea that our usually peaceable cotemporary has got his dander up. He advises those who have lost cattle to dig up the hatchet, paint their faces, and take the war-path, go to Auburn and massacre Mrs. McFlynn and her son, a bright, intelligent little fellow, about ten years of age. He seems to have despaired of having justice meted out to those who take a fancy to their neighbor's personal property. Probably Mrs. McFlynn is in jail; if so, it would in some manner account for the advice given, as in that case those who would act upon the suggestion of scalping women and children would be safe from any resistance which the intended victims might offer. Brave advice.

BLOWN UP.—Quite an alarming accident happened to Dr. D. W. Strong, of this place, one day last week. He was engaged in prospecting a tin can for tomatoes, which, being filled with vegetable gas, exploded, knocking the doctor down, and almost demolishing the magnificent "casket" with which he persists in adorning his cranium. His wife immediately administered restoratives, and brought him to his senses, since which time he has been gradually recovering from the effects of the stove blast. He is now engaged in repairing the rent in his hat by an application of benzine, the result of which we shall chronicle in due time.

FUN FOR THE BOYS.—An "aged contraband," who formerly resided in this place, returned to his old haunts after some years' absence, on Tuesday last, set up a boot-black stand near the post office, and commenced "business." In the evening, no doubt being overjoyed to meet his old friends and acquaintances, he partook rather freely of "corn cake," causing him to "run late" that night. Next day, "business" not being very brisk, and feeling rather sleepy, he seated himself on the store-box, which constituted his "stand," in the sun, and fell asleep. There, quietly enjoying his slumber, he sat nodding, until a nod, heavier than the rest, dumped him off the sidewalk into the street, capsizeing his "stand," which fell on top of him, rather rudely breaking his repose. The old "quaint citizen" raised himself erect, and muttering to himself, "Pear's to me dat ar carpenter didn't make dis stand berry solid," gathered up the "instruments of his art," and replaced them in their former position. The scene created no little amusement among those who witnessed it.

MILITARY.—The Pacific Guard, of this place, at the regular meeting on Tuesday evening last, elected the following named persons as officers for the ensuing year: Captain, C. M. Kopp; First Lieutenant, J. Y. Thomas; Senior Second Lieutenant, J. D. Hilton; Junior Second Lieutenant, C. C. Brogan; Orderly Sergeant, James T. Staples. The company numbers some fifty men rank and file, and is excellently drilled and disciplined.

GOOD OPENING.—There never was, we suppose, a better opening for some enterprising business man in the dry goods line than there is in this place now. By the sale of Mr. Blair the entire business in this place goes into the hands of one firm. We have living in this place and vicinity some two hundred and fifty families who will be dependent upon this single firm for nearly their entire supply. Any one desirous of embarking in a pleasant business, with a fair prospect of making money, now has an excellent opportunity of doing so. Don't all come at once though.

PLEASANT PARTY.—On Tuesday night last several of our friends of the Methodist persuasion had quite a pleasant party, in which they were treated to a "flow of soul," interspersed with excellent music, after which members of the party adjourned to the lawn in the rear of the house and participated in the dance. See it's communication, he tells all about it.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. L. G. Blair, who has been a merchant in our town for many years, sold out his dry goods and clothing establishment last week to Messrs. Adler & Hudepohl. Mr. Blair intends paying a visit to the old folks at home in a short time, during which we wish him, in advance, a pleasant journey.

THE WAGON IS COMING.—The Central Pacific Railroad Company have employed on their works at the present time eighteen hundred men, and it is thought that the cars will be running up as far as Clipper Gap, a point about seventeen miles below this place, by the first of June.

THE NEXT SENATOR.

We see by our exchanges that the subject of who shall be the next United States Senator from this State is being pretty generally agitated, and a few have already expressed a preference. It is certainly fit, in our opinion, that the claims of each aspirant should be thoroughly canvassed in order that the people may judge of the fitness of those who aspire to this great honor, and become acquainted with the claims of each. The Calaveras Chronicle, not long since, gave expression to an opinion that as the last Senator, Mr. Conness, was chosen from the Douglas wing of the Union party, it would be but fair that the next be taken from among the old line Republicans. This would be but fair, we admit, did we acknowledge any separate wing in the Union organization in this State; but we do not; and we hold that it is the duty of every man to condemn in round terms any effort on the part of the friends of particular candidates to create a schism in our ranks. We now have the power to control all elections which may come before the people, and will continue to wield that power so long as we act in concert in elevating the best men to office and power, and no longer. Let us cast about us, and when we have thoroughly canvassed the claims and fitness of each of the aspirants, choose that one who will be most likely by his industry, talent and force of character to advance the interests of the State at the national capital. The present question is one of vast importance as well as of vital interest to the people of this State and coast, and they should, ere it is too late, acquire a knowledge of the views entertained by each of those whose prominence among us points him out as an eligible and proper person to elevate to the honorable and dignified position of United States Senator. No State in the Union has been so rily represented in the National Congress as California; and no people have suffered more from the chicanery of office-seekers than our own. First, Gwin, with his plausible story of what he could and would do; next, Gwin, with his lies of what he had done for the advancement of the interests of this State. Then comes Latham, riding in his two-horse act, promising us bonanzas while here and pocketing the money, doubtless, while in Washington. Then McDougal, the everlasting blot upon the fair fame of our young State, too drunk to attend to our business for which he is paid, and too mean to resign that respectable and sane man might discharge the duties he has totally neglected. In view of our past misfortunes, from lack of foresight and prudence, we repeat that we cannot be too particular in the choice which we make of the coming Senator. Every candidate for the Legislature of our State should be unequivocally pledged, not to support any particular man on account of party service, but for the man, who, by his position, integrity intellect and moral worth, will justify the people in placing the Senatorial robe upon his shoulders; and none other should receive any consideration from the masses. Any amount of money will be lavished in the coming contest in order to blind the good sense and better judgment of the unthinking. Every effort will be made to prejudice the claims of good men in order that the unprincipled and designing may carry the day. Already the seeds of disorganization are attempted to be sown in the ranks of the Union party by those who are desirous of our defeat, and it behooves the friends of the only political organization worthy the name to be on the alert. We should, of all things, not allow small differences to influence our actions at this time. The party has kept our State true to the principles of self-government and the great cause of human liberty when herculean efforts were made to tear her from the fold of the great sisterhood, and should be sustained in order that we may practically illustrate the problem for which our brave soldiers have so long been toiling and battling—whether or not man is capable of SELF-GOVERNMENT.

LETTER FROM SACRAMENTO.

[FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT.]
SACRAMENTO, April 6, 1865.
MR. EDITOR:—In obedience to the commands of Gen. McDowell, a salute of one hundred guns is now being fired on Front street in honor of the confirmed news of the capture of the rebel capital. The demand for whisky is not so great as on the night of the first receipt of the news, but a reasonable amount is being punished to-day. The city is alive with flags. It is generally conceded that the war is over. The copperheads are disgusted that the chivalrous city of Richmond was captured by Weitzel's nigger troops, and that the proud inhabitants thereof received the said niggers with enthusiasm. This is a great country! We are all abolitionists now. Even Jo Hamilton, of your county, may soon be in favor of allowing niggers to vote, but he will, no doubt, insist to the bitter end, upon a statute prohibiting our sisters and daughters from marrying niggers. Indeed, there is great danger that they may be infected by the enthusiasm of the ladies of Richmond, and receive our colored fellow-citizens to their arms, unless prohibited by law.

Sacramento is looking up. The Central Pacific Railroad Company is building a large and substantial wharf or dock on the river at the foot of J street for the landing of boats and the shipment of granite. The old Vernon House has been raised to the high grade, and the redoubtable Sam. Brennan has erected a fine building on the vacant lot at the corner of Front and J streets. A large brick building is going up on the corner of Sixth and K, designed for stores and a Masonic Hall. I judge from the plans and the work already done that the Masons of Sacramento have better taste and will construct a finer building than any ever erected by that venerable (for age, I mean) old humbug, Solomon. That temple of his was, after all, a shabby affair. The truth might as well come out; it was a burlesque upon the noble science of architecture. Oh, what an insignificant and contemptible sty it was when compared with the Parthenon, the Erechtheum, or the grand old temple on the promontory of Mycale. But then, how could it be expected that that lascivious old rake, Solomon, would have the time or patience to build a decent house to live in when he had seven hundred wives to look after, besides three hundred concubines, whom, if he was like most husbands, he loved better than his wives? But old Solomon "was not much of a pumpkin," except as a rake, and he is hereby dismissed.

A large and beautiful public School House has been erected on the corner of Seventh and G streets. This building is of brick, two stories high, exclusive of basement, and would be a credit to any city in the Union. Sacramento without doubt has the best public schools of any town in the State. They are noted for order and system; and when order and system obtain in any school progress in learning is sure to follow. When there is no order and no system, scholars may attend school till they are as old as Methuselah, and they will move in their studies like a door on its hinges, backwards and forwards, and no progress will be made.

Brush, brush, BRUSH is as necessary to secure order in a public school as "Gentle gestures, countenance" was in the opinion of Demosthenes, to produce eloquence. The work on the State Capitol goes on apace; twenty-two stone-cutters and several brick-layers are now at work. Granite from the State quarry on the line of the Pacific railroad is now being used; it is much lighter than Folsom granite, with which the building was commenced. It is expected by the architect that he will be able to finish the basement story by the first of December next. There is to be two stories above the basement, making the building about seventy feet from the ground to the cornice. The Assembly and Senate Chambers extend from the basement through the second and third stories and will be fifty feet in the clear, from the floor to the ceiling. The distance from the top of the statue that crowns the dome to the floor of the rotunda beneath will be one hundred and forty-nine feet, making the height of the building from the top of the statue to the ground one hundred and sixty-nine feet. There will be five entrances to the building from the outside, one through the main portico on the western front, one on each of the north and south wings, and two on the eastern side. The stringers, on which the floors rest are to be of wrought iron, and the floors themselves are to be of variegated tiles. The building when completed will be an honor to the State, and for architectural beauty and elegance of proportions will be excelled by no state capital in the Union.

A most scandalous and disgraceful outrage was perpetrated here the other night by some carnal-minded cuss, who had not the fear of God before their eyes or the police either, by throwing stones, about three o'clock in the morning, through the elegant cut-glass windows of William Siddons' saloon. Siddons is a native of Charleston, South Carolina. Some people seem to think that because poor Siddons was born in the most infamous city in the Union that therefore he must be treated the most infamously of any man in the community.

There are signs of rain. The farmers must have it soon or the crops of grain will be a failure. Already many fields look yellow and sickly, and the farmers in all the valleys begin to talk discouragingly, and unless rain falls in abundance soon, look out for high prices for flour and barley another year. UNKOWN.

VALUABLE LITERATURE.—Mr. Dodson, traveling agent for the sale of a new work entitled "Sacred History," is in town, and will remain for a few days at the National Hotel. The work is a most valuable one, elegantly illustrated, and contains descriptions of ancient and modern Palestine, the lives of the Patriarchs, Prophets and Kings, of Christ and his Apostles and much valuable information concerning the famous ruined cities of the Bible. Mr. D. is also agent for Dana's new American Cyclopaedia, complete in sixteen volumes, of 700 pages each, bound in calf, which he will furnish at very low rates. Persons desiring either of these works can give their orders to Mr. D. and be supplied in a short time.

I. O. O. F.—At a regular meeting of Olive Lodge, No. 81, the following named persons were elected representatives to the Grand Lodge: P. B. Holmes, N. W. Blanchard, L. G. Blair, W. H. Hillhouse and Joseph S. Bloom.

We learn that the citizens of Iowa Hill are about organizing a military company at that place.

AN EVENING WITH THE METHODISTS.

MR. EDITOR:—It is so seldom that we see our Methodist friends in print that any item concerning them, however commonplace in its nature, must necessarily be welcomed as a novelty. (I) at least by all appreciative readers—and of such only, I am pleased to think, are the readers of the ENQUIRER composed. Upon this hypothesis (combined perhaps with a love of scribbling), I am tempted to chronicle the occurrence of the semi-occasional meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Social Circle, on Monday evening of this week, at the residence of Mr. Merwin, adjacent to the town of Dutch Flat.

With due Methodist precision, the guests were all costily assembled in the drawing-room at the appointed hour, eight o'clock, (their punctuality upon earth augurs well for their winning the heavenly race in time to behold the remaining Orders of Christianity arrive,) when, with characteristic earnestness, they at once proceeded to engage in the chaste amusements peculiar to them, yes upon such occasions.

Although I have mingled with this people but comparatively little, I have not failed to remark as a noteworthy fact, that whatever amusements they engage in they enter therein with the same vim which characterizes their worship, as if it were a part of their religion so to do, and as if it were equally a sin to be lukewarm in the enjoyment of those rational delights which nature dictates and conscience approves, as in worship of that Beneficent Being who has bestowed upon His creatures the faculties of enjoyment, and whose loving kindness thus, like the noonday sun, shines on and warms them upon every hand. Wherefore, they who complain that there is "no life" in a sectarian pleasures are, perhaps, themselves dead to some of the most delectable sensations that ever thrilled the human breast.

The attendance was not large, but respectable in more than numbers, a fair modicum of the mainly worth and female excellence, together with a happy amount of the best musical talent, vocal and instrumental, resident about the town of Dutch Flat, being present.

Superior music, instructive conversation and a judicious selection of parlor sports comprised the distinctive features of the evening's entertainment and I will venture the assertion that all present were charmed, instructed or amused in recompense for the hour thus surrendered up to eternity. At ten o'clock precisely the guests were courteously dismissed and recommended to pleasant dreams.

It is a pleasing reflection that the day of last is beginning to dawn in the mountains when the sexes can be drawn together for social recreation by other influences than the sounds of a fiddle. It promises much for the rapid and permanent development of a taste for intellectual pleasures in lieu of the frivolous and all-absorbing dissipation which has too long prevailed. In points an awakening in the minds of the guardians of youth to the fact that the head and heart need educating as well as the legs; and that a time should be religiously set apart for the due observance of the social and moral virtues, the visible possession and daily exercise of which alone can make their sons respected and their daughters esteemed.

But nothing is perfect; nothing save imperfection, which is wonderfully perfect, consistent in itself and universal, withal. Perhaps the inevitable flaw which we discover in all things that we stoop or rise to survey, is, after all, the Grand Key to the Great Purpose for which Earth was fashioned and ourselves endowed with Being. (?)

Now, in application of these remarks, as to a faithful chronicler of events, I am compelled to state that during the progress of the pleasures which I have transcribed for your consideration, while the parlor guests were enjoying themselves as herein certified to, a rustic dance by moonlight was improvised in the back yard of the mansion by the more volatile and unrefined portion of the guests who, one by one, had stolen forth to partake of the forbidden joy, all amidst the thing was fairly underway before anything was known of it, the first intimation that such steps were contemplated being borne to graver ears by the lively strains of "Pop goes the Weasel." I was truly pained by the shade of sorrow which fitted and sat upon the countenance of the pastor as the snarled his ears and its associations ran through his understanding, and really felt relieved when shortly afterwards he took his departure; but was suddenly plunged into a train of troubled reflections by his timing his adieu to the moment when the fiddle changed its tune to "G" to the Devil and Shake Yourselves!"

But it is a hard task to always do right, one of the most difficult tasks, perhaps, that any set of clear individual ever essayed; and whoever shall read this unvarnished recital aright, must admit that the efforts of the Social Circle in this direction are crowned with the laurels usual to human endeavor, to any who least.

In good sooth, who shall say that dancing, rationally indulged in, is a sin? Yet who will deny but that it is the height of profanation to dance in the TEMPLE—erected to God and dedicated to Man's superior uses! And as Him of Nazareth scourged forth the money changers therefrom, so is it not clearly the duty of the Apostles of to-day to scourge forth from this beautiful and instructive edifice those who would turn it into a Hurdy Shop!

Reverend Sir, prepare the things and emulate the example of the Master!

[Written for the Enquirer.
PUBLIO WORSHIP.]

Someone has said that the heathen bow down to his idol of wood or stone in proof of man's exalted nature and fearful fall. It shows his high capacity and his degraded condition. He was formed for worship, but has sunk from the worship of God to the adoration of wood and stone. Idolatry proves the strength of instinct or desire to worship. Even when the soul sinks so low as to lose the idea of the true God, it still vaguely feels after Him and yearns for Him in the thick darkness of idol-worship.

On the other hand, those who have risen high in the scale of virtue and manhood, and afford the loftiest ideas of all that is noble and great in man have in every instance been devout worshippers of God—of a loving, just and holy God.

Again, the races and the nations that have made the greatest progress in the facilities for human happiness and improvement, are at the same time most distinguished as worshippers of God.

The intelligence of my readers precludes any call for proof of these propositions. What follows?

1. Man was made for worship. 2. No degradation or depravity of the race can destroy this desire of necessity of man. 3. The highest culture and growth of man only increases and elevates the feeling of worship and the sense of God.

Accordingly we find that the religions of men all make provision for worship, and the best and purest, that of Jesus Christ, makes the most of worship, both public and private. The most earnest christian and also the most devout worshippers.

From these facts it clearly follows that all who would realize for themselves a noble life and a complete character, will not fail to worship God, and will "worship Him in spirit and in truth for he seeketh such to worship Him." But, you may say, Californians are not noted for habits of worship. I reply, the more the pity. "For, what would you infer? That Californians are an exception to the rest of mankind? No man believes that. It is nothing strange, for the reason is simple. What is it, then? Simply this: Californians have got into the habit of staying away from church. Is it a good habit? Then mankind in all ages, the most degraded and the most exalted, in all countries, except California, the whole race, in a word, is deluded on this subject: But, do you ask, why is it so in California? A student's thought will show you, without a reply from me. How was it in California a few years ago? Was there any Sunday here? No. Had you any religious meetings? No. Did it seem right? No. But what could you do? What did men do? You had no churches, but then you had saloons! Bibles were scarce, but cards were not. Ministers were nowhere, but the gamblers were. And so men lost Sunday, lost the habit of going to church, lost their regard for ministers, lost their faith in the Bible, lost their interest in religion, and became, well they became Californians. Still, it may be true that the old way is the right way: that God requires our worship: that we are guilty sinners not to worship Him "in the beauty of holiness; and what if it shall be so found by and by?

We meet together, make speeches, rejoice and sing at the news of victories, and shall our lips be sealed and our tongues be silent in regard to the greater interests of the soul? Shall we study all things else, and close our eyes on the character of God?

But, if it is conceded that we ought to meet and worship, when shall we do it? The old way is a good way. Has any Californian discovered a better way? Sunday was appointed for that use. Many have a poor opinion of going to church, because they have a wrong opinion. They go to be entertained by the minister, and to enjoy the music, but not to worship God. They are men idlers in the congregation of the Lord. They hardly listen to the prayer, and of course it is very long. How would it be if they would do the words of the minister the words of their own soul, pleading with God? If they met to worship God, would not the case be quite different? Reader, try it.

A STUDENT.

INDIAN MURDER.

The Oroville Record of March 25th gives the following account of a fiendish murder and robbery committed by Indians in Tehama county:

Mrs. Moore, aged sixty-seven years, residing in the foothills on Single creek, Tehama county, near the line of this county, was shot and killed by Indians, early on the morning of Saturday, March 18. Her son, William Moore, was about six hundred yards from the house at the time getting wood. Hearing the report of a gun, he stepped to the door of the house to ascertain where the report came from, when he saw the Indians. Being unarmed he ran to the first house, procured a gun and assistance, and returned to his mother's house. The Indians had left, having robbed the house of all the clothing, bedding, food and meat, and two guns. A trunk was broken open and two hundred dollars in gold was taken. The Indians returned after night and burnt everything that remained. The person of Mrs. Moore was undisturbed by the Indians in the absence of her son, as $22.50 in gold was found by him in her pocket. The Indians were dressed in citizens' clothing, and it is reported there were fifteen of them, it is supposed, from the mountains. The correspondent who furnishes the above particulars says that, within three years, in Butte and Tehama counties, no less than nine or ten persons have been killed and four or six wounded by the same band, in connection with Valley Indians. He desires to call the attention of Governor Low and General McDowell to these facts, and intimates that the people will not stand still and submit to such butcheries every year, while Uncle Sam's boys are near at hand, whose business should be to prevent Indian raids. Great excitement naturally prevails among the people in this neighborhood, and if the authorities do not take prompt action they will feel compelled to take the remedy in their own hands in a summary manner.

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS—
Should be in the possession of everybody in the mining region. As a preventive of various dangerous diseases to which the gold seeker is liable, it has no superior. While it is quite palatable even as a beverage, it is speedy and powerful in its effects upon the system. In all cases of diarrhoea, dysentery, and the prevailing fevers consequent upon exposure,
the Bitters will be found invaluable as a corrective.
No man should enter upon the exposed camp life of a miner without being provided with Hostetter's Preventive of stomach disease, nor should any of those who are now engaged in the occupation fail to have recourse to the Bitters. Sold by all druggists and dealers everywhere.

HOPES FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. Young, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure.
Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sick and troubled can direct themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice.
Do not forget the number nor the manner of directing your letter. Consultation Office, 540, Washington

MEDICAL CAND.—Success is said to be the criterion of merit. If this is so, Dr. Doherty is not an exception to the rule. Of the many physicians who advertise to cure the particular branches to which he has devoted his particular study, none has attained that wondrous and general practice which daily attend at his office. The great Record, of Paris, appreciably devoted his attention to the particular branch of Medicine denominated Specific and Chronic. Dr.
Doherty has determined to do the same. Read his advertisement in another column, and the sworn statement of cures.

PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE

Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1850,
For the Cure of Private Diseases of whatever nature
AND ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
540 WASHINGTON STREET.
SAN FRANCISCO, : : : CALIFORNIA
NO CURE, NO PAY.

Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. For direction of letters, see below.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord is to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific Coast. The thousands annually received and cured, and the number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment rank it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES AND IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the blood from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength and vigor from the frame; and poison the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiots, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venereal Poison. The silent forms, by retreating to the blood, hold ever over the one afflicted, the sword of destruction that is liable at any moment to fall and blight—to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles in dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured: the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures that leave the poison to crawl through the system, eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine. WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician, whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES OF THE URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all diseases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY AND PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its adjuncts; Gonorrhea and its accompanying diseases; and all disorders of the Bladder, Kidneys and prostate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion; Impotency; Incipient Consumption; and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, OR NO PAY REQUIRED at the PRIVATE MEDICAL INSTITUTE.

No 540 Washington street, San Francisco, Cal.

SEMINAL WEAKNESS OR SPERMATORRHOEA. The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable falling of the powers of the mind, desire for society, and impeding trouble, forebodings of evil, scrofula, and troubled and incursive dreams accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases, Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his home life, and in many cases, dragging him along the broken path of his existence toward a premature and loathsome grave. To him who finds his life dribbling out in the discharge of the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Marriage, that holy office, the safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope or cure, but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of his happiness, is a victim of his evil, and an innocent companion of his punishment. He adds to his misery and disorder all hope of happiness, and there is no rescue except in proper and skillful treatment. Consult, then, at once, a physician whom long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which fills thousands of sick rooms with paralytics and consumptives, and hundreds of widows with grief, and life and limb, and should consult, without a moment's delay, with a physician who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and all assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE, without hindrance from business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with disease, and requires medical or surgical assistance, the enquiry should be, Where is there a physician who is fully competent to administer relief, and whose respectable standing in society recommends him to the confidence of the community? The Doctor, understanding how imperatively necessary those recommendations are, feels it his duty to propose, and by the attention of the afflicted to the fact that he has been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female Diseases for twenty years, and is fully qualified to administer in all cases; both medically and surgically, not in a superficial manner, but in as thorough a manner as years of study and practice—both in hospitals and private families—can make him.

From the hands of the unqualified, unscrupulous and designing, therefore families can rely upon him as upon a father. All in affliction can find in him one who can feel and sympathize with and befriend them in trouble—one in whose secrecy and the utmost confidence can be placed. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. See address below.

THE CELEBRATED FEMALE REMEDIES, compounded from the private prescription of Dr. Young, have now obtained a most extended popularity, and are correctly viewed to be the safest and surest remedies for the complaints for which they are applied. The constantly accruing testimonials of their efficacy declare them to be pre-eminently superior in their action. No lady should be without these "Renewing Agents." None genuine unless procured at this office.

Sent by Mail or Express, to any part of the State. THE GREAT FEMALE MEDICINE! PREVENTIVE POWERS FOR MARRIED LADIES. Now Safe and Infallible, lasting from four to six months. "CONSTITUTION WATER."

The only Remedy for Diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, Gravel, Dropsical Swellings, Genital Debility, &c.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above mentioned, and also

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY, PHYSICAL PROSTRATION, INDIGESTION, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease any way connected with the disorders or decay of the PROCREATING FUNCTION. Persons about to marry, if conscious of any weakness, should take the CONSTITUTION WATER. Whether broken down by excess, wear by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrengthened and relaxed organization is at once rebraced, revived and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the MIRACULOUS WONDER. The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom of almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active; and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The medicine renews the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

Irritation of the neck of the Bladder. Inflammation of the Kidneys, and Catarrh of the Bladder, Stricture, or Burning, or Painful Urinating, Calculus, Gravel, Brick-dust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Discharges after Urinating.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and to much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. TRY IT in these cases, and you will ever give your praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

MALES AND FEMALES. Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back and through your hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

The California Fly-Killing Liquid.

FLY PAPER KILLS ITS THOUSANDS. THE Liquid Fly Killer kills tens of thousands. This preparation for killing flies gives the rarest satisfaction of anything ever yet used. It is now improved to the highest killing point. It is of such a nature and so speedily of effect, that the flies will not spot the walls and windows, which makes the use of other preparations objectionable.
